SPECIAL GUEST

Tonsley Events is delighted to introduce our special guest Mrs Nicola Bruce CPT. Known to many by her professional name 'Niki Day' and to a few by her stage name 'Sticky Niki'; we are proud to be in the company of a world famous athlete.

Born in 1969 in Ashford to humble beginnings, it was clear that Niki's fiercely competitive nature would soon propel her to stardom. She dedicated her early life to Spelthorne Gymnastics Club where she established herself as having the most stylish and instantly recognisable bowl haircut. Later in her career, she founded 'Spelbound' which gained global notoriety. Notwithstanding its success, it was her skills on the bar which most will remember, despite this often leading to trouble on the floor, pommel and ring.

In 2001, as a trainer to the rich and famous, she was invited to a high-society charity ball on HMS President, organised by the pioneering global events organisation, Tonsley Events. It was this chance encounter where her life took a fortunate and unexpected turn; so strong was her belief in all things Tonsley, she became an ardent supporter. Realising the other three weren't available (or otherwise inclined), she fell in love with the other founder and married him as quick as she could. It was this fortuitous moment that really brought her the fulfilment in life she was seeking.

As a Trainer and Social Media Influencer (635 Insta followers) Niki now splits her time between Surrey and Devon training frustrated middle-aged housewives by encouraging them to eat less shortbread.

As a vocal ambassador to Tonsley Events (frequently to be found sporting the renowned Tonsley Totty top and on special occasions, we are reliably informed, the exclusive Tonsley thong), we're delighted she will be opening Tonsley 1969: The Garden Olympics today.
